PLANS TO GREET FRANCIS MURPHY

President Austin Hopes to Have One Thousand Men in Line.

The musical program at Murphy Hall on Saturday night was as varied as it was successful; comprising vocal duets by Bradley and Avery; mandolin solo by Mr. Wallace; banjo, Mr. Meath; flute, Mr. Nakuina; Mr. Bell's instrumental trio, and many songs by Messrs. Nokes, Bradley, Wallace, Avery, Kelly, Patterson, Warren, and Sabate. The funny talk by Mr. Martin was especially enjoyable being vociferously encored. Major Wilson of Kamehameha school, gave the address of the evening. It was a good practical talk having many strong points which were roundly applauded. In the absence of President Austin, Moses Nakuina was assigned to the chair and his witty remarks before each announcement did much to make it one of the liveliest evening's entertainments yet held at the hall.

Mr. Austin came in before the entertainment closed and announced that arrangements had been made for a grand torchlight procession to take place on Tuesday, evening, August 27th, in honor of Francis Murphy who arrives from the Colonies that day. Acting Gov. Cooper has offered the band. Marshal Brown will head the procession with the mounted police; the Postoffice will send a delegation of U. S. civil service employees; delegations from the churches will join the Y. M. C. A. and all those who signed the Murphy pledge in January will parade with Francis Murphy Clubs No. 1, No. 2 and No. 3. The Y. M. C. A. escorted by the Concordia band, will also parade and it is expected that Government officials and employees will also turn out. Last but not least, Mr. Austin said, there will be a company from Camp McKinley. The two great Hawaiian societies Kilauea and Aloha Aha will also appear to show the appreciation of the better element of the Hawaiians for Murphy practical temperance. The Murphys hope to have a 1000 men or more in line.

All organizations participating will meet at the drill shed plaza at 7 p. m. and receive torches. All who have torches are requested to bring them. Major Wilson will be Grand Marshal of the parade assisted by Moses Nakuina. Any organization, of whatever nature, desiring to do honor to the great apostle of temperance may be assigned to a place in the parade by making application to Major Wilson at Francis Murphy Hall during the day. All persons desiring to show respect for Mr. Murphy may join any of the Murphy clubs.

All those who can do so are requested to meet Francis Murphy at the steamer and escort him to the hall on Bethel street. The program and line of march will be published tomorrow.

ANOTHER ORGAN DEDICATION

German Lutherans Try Their New Instrument, Imported From Germany.

The fine new organ of the German Lutheran Church was dedicated with appropriate but simple ceremony yesterday morning. The regular organist, Prof. F. A. Ballaseyus, of Oahu College, presided with his usual grace, and the sweet melody which filled the church was as much a product of his skill as of the organ-builder's talent.

The program of the morning was of the rigid simplicity which always characterizes the services of the German Lutherans. There was the usual congregational singing and a short address by the pastor Rev. Mr. Felmy, in which he referred to the new organ, saying that the sweet strains were brought from Germany into the German homes of Hawaii, but that the sound is international and music is beloved by all.

The new organ is a very fine instrument and was built in Germany by the celebrated firm of Walker & Co. of Ludwigsberg, Wurtemberg. This is the same firm which has built the largest organs in the world, and has the product of its factory in nearly every country. The organ in Boston Music Hall was built by Walker & Co. fifty years ago.

The exterior of the new organ is plain, to conform with the architecture of the church, and is gothic in style. Its musical quality is exceptionally fine; the soft stops are of fascinating sweetness, and the tone is loud and strong, as the organ is used entirely for congregational singing. The tone can, however, be modified by the organist to any strength required. The organ cost set up in the church nearly $2,500 and the minister and congregation are very happy over their new acquisition.
